

Pick one prompt.

Cut it out.

Glue it on the top of a piece of lined paper.

Put the lined piece of paper in your research book and bring it home.

Answer the prompt over the weekend. It is DUE ON MONDAY 9/18/17!

What do the illustrations (photographs, maps) tell you?
How do they help you to understand the words?

What questions do you now have after reading? What would you like to learn more about? Why?

Cut out this table and staple it to your lined piece of paper.

Writing Short Constructed Responses...

1. Write in complete sentences that include a subject (a noun) and predicate (verb or verb phrase that tells about the subject).
2. Identify and underline each thing you are asked to do.
3. Look for plurals, like “details”, to make sure your answering the prompt completely.
4. Make sure your answer addresses each of the things you underlined in the question.
